

INVITATION

UEG Educational Seminar 'Gymnastics for Fun'

Loughborough, Great Britain, 20th – 22nd October 2017

British Gymnastics would like to invite you to the UEG Educational Seminar 'Gymnastics for Fun' which will be taking place in the beautiful town of Loughbrough, in Great Britain. The seminar will be held at Loughborough University, which hosts a wealth of hospitality, conference and sports facilities including a dedicated Gymnastics Centre.

This Seminar is an exciting opportunity to increase your knowledge and ideas of how to create and develop an attractive Gymnastics for All programme. It will include a variety of lectures, practical sessions, discussions and group studies to share your own experiences and good practice and also learn from others.

It is aimed for coaches and people responsible for delivering Gymnastics for All to children and young people. The minimum age required to attend is 18 years old. The seminar will be delivered in English and will be led by international lecturers and instructors with a wealth of experience in the field.

A detailed schedule will be communicated to all participants upon confirmation of registration. All registrations must be completed by the National Federation before the 10th July 2017 (please see the additional information below regarding this).

Each National Federation has the opportunity to register two participants. National Federations are permitted to request additional places for participants and if there are enough places, the registrations will be accepted. If there are no places, a waiting list will be in place in case of cancellations.

The UEG will pay the participant fee for the seminar. Travel, accommodation, food and education resources will have to be assumed by the National Federation.
